

Playing the four speaking roles will be George Edwards as Jenny's father, William Tarver as the villain, "Thomas Bouche," Carey Cox as "Peters" and Jack Hughes as the guard.

Anna Andrews, Valerie Clark, Jeanette Hall, Marlyn Terrell, Sylvia Corley, Molly Liby, Margaret Proft, Jean Starke, Carey Cox, Floyd Hawthorne, John Mathesen, Ken

See CAST FOR p. 4

"King" Crowned Tonight

By Mickey Myers

Sigma Phi Epsilon's 16th annual King's Ball to be held tonight promises to be the "biggest yet", SPE president Hank Smith commented this week.

The crowing of a new

"King" by current title holder Don Rice, will be the main attraction of the evening. His excellency will be chosen from a slate of seven nominees.

Those vying for the title are Carroll Carver, sponsored by Alpha Delta Pi; Charles Finney, Sigma Nu; David Gray, Alpha Chi Omega; Jim Bob Humphries, Kappa Phi; Leonard Tibbetts, Kappa Delta and A. D. Winters Alpha Phi Omega.

The election is being held today in the SUB from 8 a.m. to 4p.m.

Golden Heart Girls, announced by Hank Smith, will also be presented during the evening. Honored coeds are, Hester Briscoe, Judy Karns, Sandra Milling, Bennie Walker, Ellen Walker, Beverly Wheeler, Barbara Wilkinson, and Kitty Wyble. The honorees will be escorted by members of SPE.

Gail Stevenson, SPE sponsored Homecoming Queen, and Janie Robinson, SPE sponsored Slime Queen will also be presented at the dance to be held 8-12 at the Harvest Club.

Ed Gerlack's orchestra will present dance music for the evening. Janet Smith and Ed Murdock will be featured vocalists.

Decorations, carrying out the theme of "King of Hearts", will be enormous playing cards revolving at the ceiling and an arc of cards at the entrance of the Harvest Club. Jack McGlaun is chairman of decorations.

Jimmy Cassady, Sig Ep alumnus, will be master of ceremonies for the formal affair.

Corsages are in order for the dance, Smith concluded, but are not essential.

Hdbrook, a Service Station Project and the ugly man on campus contest, "Mr. Scrounge," will round out the week of events.

Junior-Senior Prom Booked For March 16

The Junior-Senior Prom will be held March 16 at the Harvest Club, according to Leonard Tibbetts, chairman of the Prom.

Gretchen Rodemacker and Diane Darell are the chairman of the inventations committee.

The reception line will consist of four junior class officers, senior class sponsors, Dr. and Mrs. McDonald, and Dean and Mrs. Archer.

The Lamar Tech Technicians will provide the music for the Prom.

Tibbetts urges students to pick bids which are available in the Student Life Office, located upstairs in the Student Union Building.

Newmann Named APO Sweetheart

Madelyn Newmann was announced as the newly elected Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, sweetheart, according to George Hirasake, reporter.

Miss Neumann was presented at the formal initiation of the fall pledges and banquet held in the King Edward Hotel last week.

GOLDEN HEART GIRLS--- Above are the Golden Heart Girls of Sigma Phi Epsilon who will be presented at the King's Ball tonight. In the foreground is Beverly Wheeler, Seated on the sofa are (left to right) Judy Karns, Kitty Wyble, Hester Briscoe and Bennie Walker. Standing (left to right) are Ellen Walker, Sandra Milling and Barbara Wilkinson.