Office Desired-Student Government Vice-President
Why are you running for this office? From my experiences in both Houses and several committees, I feel I could benefit the Student Government in an office which has a wider scope of duties.

What can be done in this office? The responsibility of the Vice-President is to be the President of the Senate. The first thing that should be done next year is to have a Student Government Workshop to inform the Senators and Representatives of their duties and the function of the Student Government. At this time the members of the various committees could be appointed so planning may begin immediately on their respective events.

The Vice-President or President should also work on the committees and advise the committee as to what has been done in the past years. The publicity committee will receive special attention next year.
Will you be able to spend all your time on campus, i.e. no off-campus jobs?
Yes.
